THE PREFACE.

I T was a usual Saying of the great Lord Verulam, That not one Man of a Thousand dies a natural Death; and that most Diseases have their Rise and Origin from Intemperance. Therefore,

Unerring Nature learn to follow close,
For quantum sufficit is her just Dose:
Sufficient clogs no Wheels and tires no Horse,
Yet briskly drives the Blood around the Course;
And hourly adds unto its Wastes, Supplies,
In due Proportion to what's spent and dies;

vj The PREFACE.

Whilst surfeiting corrupts the purple Gore,
And bankrupts Nature of her long-liv'd Store:
And thus the Soul is from the Body tore
Before its Time. —————

Which by a temperate Life, in a clean Cell,
Might full a hundred Years with Comfort dwell,
And drop, when ripe, as Nuts do slip the Shell. }

Trust not to Constitution, 'twill decay,
And twisted Strength, its Fibres wear away.
As close-wove Garments of a strong-spun Thread
The Woof frets out and tears away the Web:
So Soul and Body tho' ne'er so well conjoin'd,
The longer that they wear the more they grind, }
Then the crackt Organ must impair the Mind. }
All finite Things tend to their own undoing,
But Man alone's industrious to his Ruin;
He, what with Riot, Delicates, and Wine,
Turns Pioneer, himself to undermine,
Besides the hidden Snares laid in our way,
The sudden Deaths we hear of every Day,
The smoothest Paths have unseen Ambuscades,
And Insecurity, Security invades:
For no Man knows what's the next Hour's Event:
Man lives just as he dies, by Accident.
How soft is Flesh, how brittle is a Bone! }
Time eats up Steel, and Monuments of Stone, }
And from his Teeth art thou exempt alone? }
What Warrant hast thou that thy Body's proof
Against the Anguish of an aching Tooth?
How soon's a Fever rous'd by acute Pains?
The smallest Ails have all their Partizans;

And

The PREFACE.

vij

And in intestine Wars they may divide,
And Life's Deserters list on the wrong side.
Diseases, like true Blood-hounds, seize their Dam,
And prey upon the Carkass whence they came.
Be always on thy Guard, watchful and wise,
Lest Death should take thee napping by Surprize.

*Drunkenness and Gluttony steal Men off silently and singulatum, whereas Sword and Pestilence do it by the Lump; but then
Death makes a Halt, and comes to a Cessation of Arms; but the other knows no Stop nor Intermission, but perpetually jogs on and depopulates insensibly and by Degrees; and though this is every Day experienced, yet
Men are so enslaved by Custom and a long
Habit, that no Admonition will avail: so true is that Saying, That he that goes to the Tavern at first for the Love of the Company, will at last go thither for the Love of the Liquor: and therefore 'twas an excellent Advice our ingenious Author gave his Godson:*

Pass

viiij The PREFACE.

Pass by a Tavern-Door, my Son,
This sacred Truth write on thy Heart;
'Tis easier, Company to shun,
Than at a Pint it is to part.

For one Pint draws another in,
And that Pint lights a Pipe;
And thus in the Morn they tap the Day,
And drink it out e'er Night:

Not dreaming of a sudden Bounce,
From Vinous Sulphurs stor'd within;
Which blows the Drunkard up at once,
When the Fire takes Life's Magazine.

An Apoplexy kills as sure
As Cannon Ball, and oft as soon;
And will no more yield to a Cure,
Than murd'ring Chain-shot from a Gun.

Why should Men dread a Cannon Bore,
Yet boldly 'proach a Pottle-Pot?
That may fall short, shoot wide, or o'er,
But Drinking is the surer Shot.

How many Fools about this Town,
Do quaff and laugh away their Time,
And nightly knock each other down,
With Claret Clubs, of NO-GRAPE WINE;
Until

Until a Dart from Bacchus' Quiver,
 As Solomon describeth right,
 Does shoot his Tartar thro' the Liver,
 Then (Bonos Noctios SOT) good Night.

Good Wine will kill as well as bad,
 When drank beyond (our Nature's) Bounds;
 Then Wine gives Life a mortal Stab,
 And leaves her weltring in her Wounds.

Wounds! That no Phylick Art can beal,
 And very rarely that they feel
 The Stroke, the Moment it does kill.

*Many a Soul with great Difficulty lugs
 on a weak and worn-out Carcass to its daily
 Rendezvous, who perhaps for many Years has been nothing else but the Vintner's
 Conveyancer to carry his Liquors between the Hoghead and the Pils-Pot.*

But when alas! Men come to die
 Of Dropfy, Jaundice, Stone and Gout,
 When the black Reckoning draws nigh,
 And Life (before the Bottle)'s out:

B

When

X The PREFACE.

When (low drawn) Time's upon the Tilt,
 Few Sands and Minutes left to run ;
And all our (past-gone) Years are spilt,
 And the great Work is left undone :

When restless Conscience knocks within,
 And in Despair begins to bawl,
Death, like a Drawer, then steps in,
 And asketh, Gentlemen! d'ye call ?

I wish that Men would timely think
 On this great Truth in their full Bowls,
Both I and Will of Ludgate-Hill,
 And all our Friends round Paul's.

When a Man's Distempers stare him in the Face, and he is summon'd to lay down his Dust, he, alas! then sees the Folly of his Ways, and what a miserable Purchase he has made with his mis-spent Time, Health and Money ; and like a Malefactor at the Gallows, makes some short Speech of Warning to his Companions, who give him the Hearing, and perhaps are drunk with his own Claret at his Funeral.

But, alas! the Destruction of himself is the least Part of the Tragedy, the Mischief

The PREFACE. xj

is struck deeper, and entails hereditary Diseases on his innocent Posterity, to the eternal Infamy of his Name and Family; when the poor Off-spring of his wretched Carcass inherits nothing but the Schedule of his Distempers, and dwindles away a miserable Life, in Pills, Plaisters, and Potions. I wish that Men may think of this, and prize and preserve a good Constitution and Stock of Health before it be too late.

I cannot better close this Epistle, than as the same Author observes the old Romans to have done to their Friends.

*Cura ut valeas: For Health once gone,
All Comforts perish with it, and are none;
Riches, and Honour, Musick, Wine, and Wit,
Wax flat and tasteless with the Loss of it.
Could Youth but see with gouty old Men's Eyes, }
One stretch upon their Back would make 'em wise: }
And Drunkenness (the damn'd first Cause) despite. }
But such is giddy Youth's unhappy Fate,
When crippl'd and nail'd down, they're wise too late.*

xij The PREFACE.

Unhappy Man! that drinks his own undoing,
As tho' his Business were, to pledge his Ruin.
And that brave Texture his sound Parents knit,
With Pipe and Pot he does unravel it.
As if the Gods in Anger gave him Wealth,
To sacrifice to Bacchus Youth and Health.
Health of all earthly Blessings is the best,
Yet most 'tis valu'd when 'tis least possess'd.

A N
E S S A Y
T O A
RULE of HEALTH.

The Definition.

H EALTH is a free, easy, and perfect Enjoyment of all the Faculties of Mind and Body to the due Performance of the Animal Functions, without any Impediment, Pain or Molestation :

Which is thus to be attained.

I F twice Man's Age you would fulfil,
Let Reason guide you, not your Will:

Let

Let all the Passions of the Soul
 Be subject unto her Controul;
 She checks all Rashness, and gives time
 To think, and re-think each Design :
 They who do thus, before they act,
 'Tis rarely seen, repent the Fact :
 This makes an easy, quiet Mind,
 (The greatest Blessing of Mankind ;)
 And he that in this Bliss do's share,
 Enjoys a Ray of Heaven here.

Fly all Excess, and first take Care
 Of Wine and Women to beware.
 Sport, dally, tattle with 'em rarely,
 And marry not a Wife too early;

Stay

[3]

Stay till you're grown, and Joints are knit,

And you have Money got and Wit :

For he that weds before he's wife,

Is shackled by a Fool's Advice :

Alas! then he may see his Fate,

And feel it too, when 'tis too late.

In single Life live pure and chaste,

Left from your Face your N O S E you cast.

And is it not a great Disgrace,

To lose the Boltſprit of your Face?

Tho' Tears and Prayer's may atone for th' Sin,

Yet Howlings bring no N O S E again :

So never touch forbidden Fruit,

But think on N O S E, when tempted to't.

Till

[4]

Till Hunger pinches, never eat,
 And then, on plain, not spiced Meat.
 Desist before you eat your fill,
 Drink to dilute, but not to swill,
 So no Ruftations you will feel.

Let Supper little be and light ;
 But none makes always the best Night ;
 It gives sweet Sleep without a Dream,
 Leaves Mornings Mouth sweet, moist, and clean.

A little Breakfast you may eat,
 Yet not so as to satiate :
 But Dinner then you must postpone,
 Till farther in the Afternoon ;

For

For never load fresh Food upon
 Your Stomach, till the former's gone;
 For whatsoe'er is swallow'd thus,
 Turns putrid and cadaverous :
 And taking more than Nature needs,
 Of most Distempers sows the Seeds.

Accustom early in your Youth
 To lay Embargo on your Mouth;
 And let no Rarities invite,
 To pall and glut your Appetite :
 But check it always, and give o're
 With a Desire of eating more.
 For where one dies by Inanition,
 A thousand perish by Repletion.

To miss a Meal, sometimes is good,
 It ventilates and cools the Blood,
 Gives Nature time to clean her Streets
 From Filth and Crudities of Meats.
 For too much Meat the Bowels fur,
 And Fasting's Nature's Scavenger.

When as your Stomach nauseates,
 And kecks at Smell or Sight of Meats,
 By Vomit fetch away the Load
 Of Phelgm and undigested Food;
 And do it soon, before it dwells
 So as to tinge its Tunicles;
 And breed sow'r Ferment, which begets
 Unfavoury Belches, and sick Fits,

And

And Steams which taint the Mouth and Gums,

With foetid Smells, like ulcer'd Lungs:

And after Vomits, always use

Emollients soft, to cool and smooth;

For Retching makes the Stomach sore,

Which Lenitives will best restore.

Bleed only when you find the Blood

Abound, or stagnate ; then 'tis good ;

Which you may very eas'ly guess,

By heavy stiff Unwieldiness,

Short Breath, high Pulse, & cætera :

Then quickly take some Blood away :

But more especially in Stitches,

Pleuritic Pains, and pungent Twitches ;

Then out of Hand without Delay

Take a good Quantity away.

For Purging I shall give no Rule,

But after Glutt'ny and cramming full,

'Tis good to empty and to cool.

Tho' forc'd Evacuations are

Such as we ought to use with Care,

Since 'tis not known, what we can spare :

* For Physick drives off with the Blood

Some Parts of the substantial Good :

And if you'd keep the Balance even,

Dame Nature must be led, not driven :

* Neque impune posse administrari, cum omnia præter naturam sint, ob idque naturales facultates infestent ; nec possint adeo morbosas causas rescindere, quin una illis, aliquid etiam benignæ substantiæ rapiant. Galen lib. de sectis prope finem.

By Methods mild, and by Degrees,

We should relieve her Grievances :

As Fasting, Exercise, and Time,

And Water heals the Wounds of Wine :

But where the Fever's peracute,

It won't admit of long Dispute ;

When Life's chief Fortress is attack'd,

Quickly consult, and quickly act ;

For many a Life hath flipt away,

By careless trifling, and delay.

So when the Case is very urging,

Spare neither vomiting, nor purging ;

Provided that your Judgment's tight ;

And take the Indication right ;

Ev'n then be not the only Agent,

Left a dead Corps shou'd prove your Patient ;

But

But call in Doctors of more Skill,
 Who may you cure, or help you kill:
 Then let it happen as it will,
 You can't be found Felo de se,
 If slain in learned Company.

When struck in Years, strong Drink forbear,
 Especially of Wine beware;
 Old Men of Moisture want Supplies,
 And Wine of all Sorts heats and dries,
 Twitches and Cramps their Tartars give,
 Hence Men step short and straddle stiff;
 For vinous Spirits prey upon
 Nutricious Juice, and vital Balm;
 This makes them tabid, lean, and thin,
 With loose and flabby, wrinkled Skin.

Water

[11]

Water and Whey, of Drinks are first,
 They cool, dilute, and quench the Thirst;
 And next to those is good small Beer,
 Not sow'r, but smart, and brisk, and clear.
 Not that in general I condemn
 A Glas of gen'rous now and then;
 When you are faint, your Spirits low,
 Your String relax'd, 'twill bend your Bow,
 Brace your Drum Head, and make you tight,
 Wind up your Watch, and set you right:
 But then again the too much Use
 Of all strong Liquors is th' Abuse;
 'Tis Liquid makes the Solids loose,
 The Texture and whole Frame destroys:
 But Health lies in the Equipoise.

The

The greatest part o'th'World's content
 With Adam's Ale, pure Element ;
 And who so strong, and does more Work,
 Than doth the Water-drinking Turk?
 And when the Stomach's out of order,
 No Cordial, like a Glas of Water ;
 This, this has baffled all the Slops
 Of Ladies Closets, and the Shops.

As Water's best, so 'twas the first
 Of Liquors, made to quench the Thirst
 Of Men, of Beasts, of Plants, and Trees ;
 From whence they all have their Increase :
 Its Uses are too manifold,
 And marv'lous great e'er to be told ;

Its

Its Particles constituent
 Are too minute an Element.
 Its Make and Texture, Crasis, Grain,
 Are too stupendiously fine
 For Virtuoso's to descry,
 Tho' Glasses come t' assist their Eye.
 Cease! then, vain Search! let that alone,
 Hid, with all Essences unknown ;
 But be content that the Creator
 Has blest the World with so much Water.
 It works itself (as being thin)
 Int' all the Pores and Parts within ;
 Helps all Secretions in their Uses,
 And sweetens sharp and sour Juices ;
 Tempers hot Bile, thins viscid Phlegm,
 And moderates in each Extreme ;

D

Damps

Damps the fierce Æstus of the Blood,
 Abates the Fever's boiling Flood ;
 Dilutes the Salts, melts off their Points,
 And acrid Particles disjoins ;
 And is the only Liquor that
 Never grows eager, sharp or flat :
 Give it but Motion, Room, and Air,
 Its Purity will ne'er impair :
 Experience daily shews it's true,
 That Water only this can do.
 All other Liquors made by Art,
 Grow rancid, vapid, four, and tart.

Chuse Water that is cool, and thin,
 Such as feels smooth, and soft to th' Skin,
 Looks clear, and bright, and crystalline:

The

The lightest Water is the best,
 That is without or Smell, or Taste :
 Which standing long, yet yields few Contents
 Of Scum, or Clouds, or Sediments ;
 Such as will lather cold with Soap,
 Tho' ne'er was fainted by the Pope,
 (As Bridget, Anne, and Winifred,)
 For 'tis the Water does the Feat,
 The Saint's the Varnish, and the Cheat ;
 And he that has a Spring like this,
 Has with good Air a double Bliss.

Never give way to Sloth and Ease,
 For Laz'ness is a great Disease ;
 And when it has Possession got,
 It makes the Man a stupid Sot :

When Sleep does first desert you, rise;
 Next, wash the Gum from off your Eyes :
 Cold Water pure will clear the Sight,
 Comfort the Eyes, and keep them bright.
 Indulge not Drowfiness, unless
 It does proceed from Weariness.
 'Thout some Fatigue there's no sound Sleep,
 'Tis eating without Appetite ;
 For those that start in Sleep, or shake,
 Find small Refreshment when they wake.
 And when you rise, approach not near
 A Fire, except the Cold's severe ;
 And then, at distance take the Heat,
 Because it does debilitate ;
 And Sloth, and Sluggishness induce,
 And spoil your natural Rest by Use.

This

This Custom, Students must avoid,
 For Mem'ry is by Heat annoy'd,
 And by hard Drinking, quite destroy'd.
 For Reminiscence is strongest where
 The Head's serene, and cool and clear:
 This Truth is seen in Regions cold,
 There what they read they always hold.
 But 'tis the Nature of a Wit,
 Soon to invent, soon to forget;
 For from the Brain that's hot and dry,
 The slight Impressions quickly fly:
 Whereas in moist and phlegmy Brains,
 The Stamp's struck deep, and long remains.
 Tho' 'tis allow'd, there are some few
 That have good Wits, and Mem'ry too.

Rise early with the Summer's Sun,
 Especially when you are young;
 For he that early walks the Fields,
 Takes all the Sweets that Flora yields;
 Just as the Sun unlocks the Blooms
 Of all their fragrant, rich Perfumes;
 Besides, with Morning Air he's treated,
 Not by the Sun-beams over-heated;
 It cools the Lungs, and fans the Blood,
 And makes the Spirits brisk and good;
 After a bad Good-fellow-Hood
 Had left their springy Parts uncurl'd,
 Like a loose Sail that is unfurl'd;
 Those Air and Action buckle up,
 When ruffled by a Midnight's Cup.

 After

After an idle drunken Bout,
 Walk and take Air, ne're sleep it out ;
 By which you will avoid the Harms
 Of Head-ach, and sick Stomach Qualms :
 For sleeping with a Load of Wine,
 Does all its Fumes within confine ;
 Which are of dang'rous Consequence,
 Dire Apoplexies spring from hence :
 * Palsies, and Tremors, and the rest,
 Which mostly Drunkards do infest,
 From Ferments in the Body pent,
 Which early rowzing may prevent ;
 For Gouts, and Stone, and such Diseases,
 Dwell most where Luxury and Ease is :

* Dr. Lower de motu cordis.

Such a Tormenter never rages
 'Mong Whey-Drinkers in poor Cottages,
 Who live in Health till mighty Ages;
 And to the Grave at hundred Years,
 Carry their Mem'ry, Eyes, and Ears.
 Who then in Ale, or worfe-brew'd Wine,
 Wou'd drown his Health, and so much Time?
 For whilst Men tipple, prate, and lie,
 Life on smooth Skates slides swiftly by.

In walking let your Cloaths be thin,
 But not too tight or strait to th' Skin,
 That cool fresh Air may close the Pores:
 This oftentimes that Health restores,
 Which too much Warmth turn'd out of Doors.

Their

[21]

Their loss of Strength declares what hurt

They get who wear a Flannel Shirt :

For thro' a constant Dilatation,

The Spirits spend by Perspiration.

In Bed lie warm, but not too hot,

Nor yet too soft, for that's a Fault ;

Soft Feathers have Attraction such,

As draws the natural Heat too much,

The Flesh makes flabby, loose and weak,

The Count'nance dead, and pale, and bleak.

Of Heats and Colds take special Care,

Windows, and Doors, that let in Air ;

A Crack, or Crevice, in the Wall,

Hurts more than doth an open Hall :

E

And

And safer 'tis to stand i'th' Street,
Than where two Doors or Entries meet.

Walk to be warm, but not to sweat,
Or by Degrees take down your Heat ;
Drink not until you're very cool,
And gently move to get a Stool.
Yet sometimes let your Feet be wet,
But in your wet Shoes never fit ;
For while you're running in the Dirt,
The Action keeps you from the Hurt.
Wash frequently your Skin all o'er,
It gives a Spring to every Pore ;
Returns the Heat upon the Blood,
Which makes all bad Digestions good.

Lodge

Lodge not fine Youth with aged Bones,
 Nor much converse with Pains and Groans ;
 For Bodies, that are old, and dry'd,
 From Juicy Youth will be supply'd ;
 These suck their Spirits, make 'em pale,
 So vital Vigor needs must fail ;
 The Aged, thro' the Young one's Pores,
 His own decrepid Limbs restores :
 And what by Contact, what by Sweats,
 What the Youth loses, t'other gets :
 This makes them pallid, thin and weak,
 As if Hag-ridden in their Sleep.
 And on the other Hand, it's naught
 To lie with one that's over fat ;
 Such sweat and over-heat the Child,
 By which a good cool Habit's spoil'd ;

For in a mod'rate Temperature,
 The Welfare of the Child's secure.
 In short, observe, the tender Young
 Shou'd be well nurs'd, but laid alone.

But above all, take special Care
 How Children you affright and scare,
 In telling Stories of Things seen,
 Of Sprite, Dæmon, and Hobgoblin;
 Hence they'll contract such Cowardice,
 As ne're will leave them all their Lives;
 And then th' Ideas of their Fears
 Continued unto riper Years,
 Can by no Reason be suppress'd,
 But of them they'll be so possess'd,
 They'll

They'll sweat, and quake, and start and stare,
And meet the Devil ev'ry where.

Terrors have changed some Men grey,
Took Limbs, and Speech, and Sense away;
Have topsy-turvy'd Brains in Skulls,
Turn'd some Men mad, and some Men Fools:
Have made a Soul skip like a Sprite,
And leave the Body bolt upright,
Stark staring, ghastly, dead and stiff,
Like Lot's sad monumental Wife.

Anger avoid, and also Grief,
They both are Enemies to Life,
And fatal often in Extremes,
To which side e'er the Passion leans.

In

In both let Reason mitigate,
 She will the Fury soon abate,
 If she's consulted not too late.
 For I have seen fierce Anger checkt,
 By seeming Deafness, and Neglect;
 Take off the Fewel, th' Fire will die,
 Silence alone will put it by,
 If not blown up by a Reply :
 Let it blow o'er, if you can bear,
 In at one, out at t'other Ear ;
 Storms hurt not in a Thoroughfare.

Late Watching does much Injury
 To Nature's whole Oeconomy;
 Impedes, or wholly doth defeat
 The making of her Work compleat;

For

For all Secretions are made best

I'th' quiet State of Sleep and Rest :

When all the Faculties of th' Mind

Are to their (soporal) Cells confin'd.

Then all the vital Functions are,

('Cause not disturb'd by mental Care)

Each to his Office to repair,

And mend the Breaches, and Decays,

Made by Disorder many ways

In Life's vast Labyrinth and Maze :

Which thro' unknown Mæanders run

Winding return where they begun,

And restless in their Course, keep on.

For th' Heart clacks on, and is a Mill,

That's independent of the Will.

And

And like an Engine squirts the Blood

Forcing up Hill the purple Flood ;

A constant Fountain that displays

Its Rivulets ten thousand ways ;

Mov'd by a secret Power unknown,

And yet that Power is not its own :

Restless from the first Stroke it gives,

To the last Moment that it lives ;

Its Office is to mesh and beat,

And make the Chyle assimilate

With balmy Blood and nitrous Air,

(All have i'th' Work a proper Share)

Which Inspiration does prepare.

That Air again the Lungs explode,

Disburthen'd of its nitrous Load ;

This

This grinds Life's Grift, yet takes small Toll

For carrying of it thro' the whole,

And lodging at each Office Door,

Sufficient for their daily Store.

Here let us ask, what human Tongue

Can praise enough that wond'rous one,

That made this great Automaton!

Here let the prostrate World adore

His infinite Goodness, Wisdom, Power.

Of Exercises, Swimming's best,

Strengthens the Muscles of the Chest,

And all their fleshy Parts confirms;

Extends, and stretches Legs and Arms;

And with a nimble retro-Spring,

Contracts, and brings them back again.

F

As

As 'tis the best, so 'tis the Sum

Of Exercises all in one:

And of all Motions most complete,

Because 'tis violent without Heat.

And next to Swimming, Riding's good,

It shakes the Bowels, stirs the Blood,

And gives a Motion to a Stool;

But bad to ride with Belly full;

For shaking does precipitate,

E'er you've digested half your Meat;

Besides your Guts, if fat, it squelches,

And causes Fumes, and four Belches:

'Tis also in hard Livers naught,

Or when oppress'd with Wind and Thought,

It

It stirs up Flatus Hypochon :

If so, desist from riding on.

For't makes it fly into the Head,

Where Dizziness, and Fumes are bred ;

Then Life's in Danger if you totter,

Be your Horse Pacer, or a Trotter :

So let the Rider take a Care,

Left from a stumbling Horse or Mare,

He don't take Earth in taking Air.

But the true Benefit in riding,

Is much and long i'th' Air abiding ;

Fasting, and always jogging on,

And drinking nothing that is strong ;

But guzzling on a Journey's wrong :

And then perhaps, you'll gain your Point,

If your Horse keeps your Neck in Joint.

In dry consumptive Coughs beware,
 They always grow much worse in Air;
 For Places high, and Air serene,
 Are for thin Bodies found too keen :
 For all the Air, on Heights, and Hills,
 'Cause robb'd of watry Particles,
 Holds Nitre naked, and not sheath'd,
 And so are naught for all short-breath'd;
 As well as Airs too thick with Smoaks :
 One pricks and tickles, t'other choaks.
 But where 'tis clear, and not too high,
 With Mixture due of moist and dry,
 The Lungs have their due Liberty,
 To play their Fan most pleasantly.

The

The Air is best on rising Hills,
 Also near grav'ly running Rills;
 For where the Soil is hard and dry,
 The Air is good, or low or high.
 The watry Steams will take off Heats,
 And much abate nocturnal Sweats.
 In Holland, where 'tis all low Ground,
 Habitual Coughs are rarely found;
 But when Catarrhs and Rheums infest,
 Warm and dry Airs are surely best.
 * For if Consumptions cur'd can be,
 (Which is a mighty Rarity)

Three

• Uterius phthisis perfecta rarissimè potest curari: vita interim diutissimè potest conservari, per hæc tria:

1. Per legitimum usum lactis.
2. Per usum vulnerariorum, &c.

Three Things in chief you need prepare,
Milk, Traumaticks, and Change of Air.
 And if with these, Cold Baths you get,
 To temper down the hectic Heat,
 He may go bare-foot as a Goose,
 Who lives in hope of dead Mens Shoes.

Tho' riding is extremely Good,
 Yet Health lies more in Choice of Food:

3. Per mutationem Aëris.

Denique quoad legitimum usum lactis :

In omni atrophîâ, tabe phthisi commodissimè observatur, quod lactis usus, seu legitimus potus, in quibusdam casibus multum possit: sed parum proderit, quoties atrophia est à colluvie cujusdam visceris, aut ubi atrophia est ex vitio stomachi, nisi hic prius sit correctus. Mich. Etmullerus de Nutritione partium læsâ. pag. 282.

A gen'ral Rule we may go by,

Is eating such things 'specially,

As are least apt to putrefy.

New Milk and Rice, Bread, Corn, and Roots,

Fresh Sallets, and fresh gather'd Fruits,

Sweet Butter, Oil, and well made Cheese;

For those who mostly feed on these,

Live long, and gently wear away,

Perceiving not their own Decay,

To th' utmost Point o'th' fatal Day.

Then without Pain, like Lamps expire,

With the last Spark of vital Fire.

For Life's a Lamp, its Oil well spent,

Leaves when't goes out a fragrant Scent :

Thrice

Thrice happy he, whose virtuous Name
 Is Incense, and perfumed Flame
 On th'Altar of immortal Fame.

So Reader, if thou art so wise
 To put in Practice this Advice;
 The World shall wonder to behold
 Thou look'st so young, and art so old.

*The Doctor's Decade,
Or the Utensils of his Trade.*

*For in Ten Words the whole Art is compris'd;
For some of the Ten are always advis'd.*

V I Z.

*Piss, Spew, and Spit,
Perspiration and Sweat;
Purge, Bleed, and Blister,
Issues and Clyster.*

THESE few Evacuations
Cure all the Doctor's Patients,
If rightly apply'd
By a wise Physick Guid::

G

For

'For an Error in these,
 Is worfe than Disease;
 So can't be too wary,
 Where Cafes do vary;
 For a Dose of't too much,
 Turns PUG o're the Perch.
 What more they advance,
 Is all done by chance;
 Even Steel and the Bark,
 Do tilt in the Dark:
 Tho' Opium, alas!
 May put by a Pass,
 And lull a Disease
 By a seeming false Peace;
 Yet these Phyfick Allies
 Use fuch Falacies,

And

And fail us so common,

We can't depend on 'em ;

So as to a Cure,

There's none can be sure.

Most other Specificks

Have no visible Effects,

But the getting of Fees,

For a Promise of Ease ;

(Much like the South S---)

Tho' our Glasses of late

Have furnish'd the Pate,

With Philosophical Prate ;

As to read learned Lectures

On a T--- and its Textures ;

And can see in the Sp---m

Generations to come :

Like Tadpoles a swimming
 To the Land of the Living,
 Yet for all this fine Show,
 No more do we know,
 Than did old Quid pro Quo ;
 That famous Compounder,
 And first Phyſick Founder.
 In thoſe Days their Blunders
 Were eſteem'd as Wonders,
 And admired as much
 As ſome do H---b C---b :
 For Phyſick then took,
 Much more by the Look,
 Than by the Succeſs,
 Which is the beſt Teſt.

To look big, grave, and dull,

And talk half like a Fool,

Denotes a wise Skull.

To be deaf, and half blind

Were Perfections of Mind ;

For all such Defects,

Were to Folly as Checks :

And few were thought wise,

That saw with both Eyes.

Yet none of these Blinkers

Were accounted Free-thinkers,

As is seen by the Treacle

Where Health lay in Pickle :

That ancient Farrago,

Exploded long ago.

Yet

Yet 'tis such a Med'cine,
 Once had the Pope's Blessing;
 And so is Catholic,
 Tho' not Apostolick;
 For't has not a Mission
 From Luke the Physician.

B why do we them blame,
 When we play the same Game?
 And make up strange Mixtures,
 Of different Textures;
 Which fret and ferment,
 Till their Fury is spent;
 And in our Guts jar,
 And there raise a War.
 From a Het'rogen Med'cine,

The Strife is intestine;

But

But where the Ingredients
 Are mix'd with Experience
 Of their Homogeneity,
 They'll never disquiet ye.
 Ill Compounds are owing
 To our Simples not knowing ;
 For their Virtues unless
 The Plants will confess,
 We must all acquiesce,
 And practise by Guess,
 Till the College reveals
 What Their Prudence conceals.
 The Arcanas of Art,
 To none they impart ;
 Those sacred Archives,
 Which enrol all our Lives,

Are

Are lodg'd on high Shelves,
 Out o'th'Reach of themselves;
 And when they fall sick,
 What they gave upon Tick,
 The Doctors ne're take,
 For fear of Mistake;
 But always mistrust,
 What they believed at first;
 Whilst the practising Youth
Swallows all for a Truth.
 For whatever they read,
 They believe as their Creed,
 But will find when they try,
 That Authors will lye;
 And in Phyick there's Legend,
 As well as Religion;

But

Thus the older they grow
 The less they will know;
 For, being oft out,
 Creates in 'em Doubt :
 So themselves they'll ne'er kill,
 By Potion or Pill;
 No Powders nor Bolus,
 Nor Issues o'th' Shoulders,
 Nor enscared in Blisters;
 Those Shrouds of the * Sisters,
 Which old Nick did contrive
 To flay Men alive,
 As if the Sick didn't feel,
 When skinn'd like an Eel.

* The three Ladies of Destiny: Clotho, Lachesis and Atropos.

Then a Plaiſter's apply'd
 To th' Remains of the Hide,
 Which tears off the reſt,
 Next time it is dreſt
 By ſome little Hell-Cub
 Or Spawn of old Belz'bub,
 Or Mellilot his Maſter,
 With a whole Sheet of Plaiſter,
 To ſhroud him compleat,
 From the Head to the Feet ;
 Sent by his Phyſician,
 To manage th'Inquiſition :
 For, one half that dies
 Are ſpur-gall'd by his Flies,
 And flay'd out of their Lives.

But

But the Devil a Doctor,
 Will flay his one Back fore;
 What his Patients endure,
 He'll avoid to be sure:
 Their Groans and their Aking,
 Do fright him from taking;
 Nor shall any Slops,
 But Wine, wet his Chops:
 He all Med'cines defies,
 As he does Spanish Flies.
 From experienc'd Opinion,
 There's little Help in 'em.
 But as Death does draw near,
 Their Art is their Fear;
 Trusting more to Small-Beer,

A Horse and fresh Air,

'Than to Physick and Prayer.

From whence I suggest,

'They're too wise for the rest,
